Dear Applicant,

You have successfully lodged your trade mark application. The filing date is 6 January 2021.

Please note your trade mark number as you will need it when contacting IP Australia or making payments.

What you need to do now

Attached to this letter are the details of your trade mark application. Please review the details to ensure they are correct. If they are not correct then please update them via our online services.

What will happen next

An examiner will assess your trade mark application against the requirements specified in the Trade Marks Act 1995.

If the requirements are met we will notify you and your trade mark will be advertised on our website. If the requirements are not met you will receive an adverse report. You will then have 15 months from the date of the report to address any issues and gain acceptance.

Things to be aware of

If you can prove you will be seriously disadvantaged by the time taken between filing and examination you can request to have the examination expedited.

If you met the requirements and your trade mark is accepted then there is a 2 month period for others to oppose the registration of your trade mark.
